Lunch on the Hill - Lunch on the Hill is our main community outreach and as such is very successful. I want to thank the ladies who cook and those I call on occasionally to provide food, without you people this ministry would not be available. To keep it sustainable we have reached the stage where we need more people on board. With sickness and other commitments sometimes we only have two ladies available to cook and present the food. This is the case for the next Lunch on the Hill, on 17 October. Last time we ended up buying a lot of food to supplement what had been generously provided. This means we are not making ends meet. At this stage we need three large bowls of salad, lettuce, coleslaw and one other. We can reimburse for ingredients. Also if you can help serve up on the day we could use you too! Please call Yvonne if you can help. Many thanks.

Nelson Civic Choir - Following their participation in the US premiere, the Nelson Civic Choir present the latest work by Sir Karl Jenkins, one of the most performed contemporary choral composers: Cantata Memoria: For the children of Aberfan. The Nelson concert, under the direction of Chris Lukies, will be the first New Zealand performance of this work. Cantata Memoria commemorates the tragedy in Aberfan, South Wales 50 years ago, where a mining tip engulfed a primary school, killing 116 children and 28 adults. Through the power and beauty of Karl Jenkins' music, the work depicts the story of that day, together with the process of grieving and finding meaning in life after tragedy. With singers and instrumentalists from the Top of the South, Christchurch and Wellington, a youth choir, full orchestra, and a specially commissioned video to complement the music, this promises to be an emotional and memorable event. The soloists are Amanda Crehan (Soprano) and Joel Amosa (Baritone). 2.00pm Sunday 15 October at Nelson College. Tickets from Alison Heslop Ph.544 5067 and Madelaine McRae Ph.544 4639.
