

Reflection questions:

- What are the connection points of our faith with God? What would happen if they had to change?
- Practically, what does obeying God in everything we do look like?
- Why do you think our community can't see the goodness in the Christian faith today and what may need to change?
- The source of Life is Christ living in us. How do we ensure we don't short-change ourselves in living this life (even with religious things)?

Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle: fatherhood. When tragedy strikes home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, fears, faith, and fathering. Can a newfound urgency help these dads draw closer to God... and to their children?
